Dr. I. Thomas Izekor has been charged with 7 charges of unprofessional conduct. Three charges allege that he engaged in sexual impropriety and failed to maintain appropriate professional boundaries with female patients, one of whom was a minor at the time. Two charges allege that he engaged in inappropriate sexual and unethical behaviour with two employees including sexually harassing and sexually assaulting those employees. One charge alleges that he influenced an individual to provide a statement in support of his response to the College and that he recorded that individual's name in medical records as a chaperone when she was not in attendance. One charge alleges that he engaged in a pattern of inappropriate and unethical conduct in his professional practice in Regina, including failing to maintain appropriate professional boundaries with employees and failing to treat employees with dignity and respect.
